Aim: To write a report about the Baptism of Jesus

While the sun rose, John the Baptist was baptising people in the River Jordan. On Tuesday December 1st 30AD, John the Baptist was wearing a camel coat wearing it inside out so that it would make him itch because it was a punishment for his sins.

That day, Jesus went to see John the Baptist because he wanted to be baptised. John insisted that he was not worthy to baptise Jesus but he did it anyway. Jesus insisted that John should baptise him to show everyone how to become a Christian now and for ever. Jesus would baptise us with the Holy Spirit. Whereas John the Baptist baptises with water.

After that, all of the Holy Trinity were together for the first time in the Bible. Hannah, a woman in the crowd said, "Now, I will teach my children how to love and follow the Son of God, Jesus Christ."

Moments later, a white, gleaming dove went down and there was a bright light shining and God's voice spoke, "This is my beloved Son in whom I am well pleased."
