

Nimratjit

Aim: To write a report about the Baptism of Jesus

Yesterday, early in the afternoon, Jesus the Son of God, was walking when he saw the huge crowds. He went round and saw John the Baptist baptizing the curious crowds, There was a buzz of excitement. People turned to take a glimpse of the Messiah. Jesus asked if He could be baptised. John refused and explained, “After me, comes the Messiah,” John continued, “I am not even worthy to touch your feet or untie your sandals.” Jesus requested and insisted he should , so that He can show everyone how to become a Christian follower of Jesus. Humbly, John stepped into the River Jordan.” John cautiously pushed Jesus’ head into the water.

At that moment, a blinding, dazzling and bright, golden glare broke down. The gentle, loving voice of God the Father shouted, “This my beloved Son who I am well pleased with.” Unexpectedly, a beautiful, pure, white, gleaming dove came!

The Holy Trinity was all united for the first time in front of everyone, Jesus came out and saw th dumb-struck faces of the crowd. Rachel, a local resident quoted, “Jesus you are sinless. Why do you have to be cleansed . You’re pure physically and mentally?” Jesus answered. “I did this to show you we are all equal. We are all servants of God!”

This is a very astonishing sight for all the people who were present and Jesus requests that we remember this very special moment.

