

Bredin

Aim: To write a report about the Baptism of Jesus

Surprising Sight of the Holy Spirit!

Last week, John the Baptist came out of the wilderness and the crowd watched as he baptized people in the River Jordan in Galilee. He wore a coat of camel's hair with a leather belt around his waist. He lived on locusts and wild honey. John said to Jesus, "You are more powerful than me. I baptize with water but you baptize people with the Holy Spirit."

Instantly, the dove descended upon Jesus

As Jesus arrived into Galilee from Nazareth, he walked towards John. Then Jesus asked his cousin to baptize him. Jesus went out into the river and God spoke and the crowd were amazed by this. A woman called Jessica explained that John had to baptize Jesus so that others would know what to do to become Christian followers.

Just at that moment, the gloomy, dark clouds moved above the River Jordan and a shining bright light shone down. God spoke and announced, "This is my beloved Son in whom I am well pleased". At the same time, a pure white dove of the Holy Spirit flew above Jesus' head.

